

PSALM 127 THE BOOK OF PSALMS

- LET'S TALK

What's your experience with building things?

Most attribute this Psalm to Solomon but some believe David wrote this for Solomon. What do you know about Solomon?

What is God communicating within the truth of unless God builds, it's in vain?

What have you tried to build on your own without God? How did you or how do you recognize when you laboring in vain? Be specific...

Read Genesis 11:1-9. How is this a statement of self against God? How prevalent and in what instances is your self will in opposition with God?

What have you seen God build?

Why does God desire dependence on Him?

What would you like to bring before God in prayer?
